

Keep connected, stay secure

Keep your contact information up to date so you'll receive important news about your retirement plan.

If you change your address or other information with your employer or union, it doesn't automatically transfer over to your information with John Hancock. Keeping your account up to date is easy and important!

Sign in to your account with our retirement app to review and update your contact information today!

Our retirement app allows you to:

Get the app

- ✓ Update personal information—Such as address, phone number, and email.
- ✓ Name your beneficiary—Add or update your beneficiary to help protect your hard-earned savings.
- ✓ View your account—Track your balance and access statements.

Why keep your phone and email current?

When a withdrawal is requested from your account, you'll receive an automated alert from John Hancock. This helps us act quickly to protect your retirement savings if you don't recognize a transaction.
